FOREWORD

There are always times in a student's school career when he feels that his efforts are of no particular value or consequence. This is far from the truth.

Your contributions, large or small, are interwoven with those of your classmates to form the pattern of life, which is, in essence, the spirit of Fair Grove High School.

This school is what it is because of you, the individual student. It is my belief that every student is essential to the life of Fair Grove, as everyone contributes something of himself, be it large or small, towards the well-being of the student body as a whole.

We have chosen as our theme for the 1958 edition of the Twig, television. We hope that this annual will be one that will always hold many wonderful memories for you. Later on, as you tend to forget your school life, it is my sincerest wish that this edition will focus back in your mind, that you will pick it up, open the cover, and tune in a vivid recollection of your school life here at Fair Grove and an enduring memory of its undying spirit.

DEDICATION

"Our favorite Star"

For the numerous kindnesses and guidance shown to us, we, the annual staff, are indeed happy and most sincere in dedicating this treasured book to the one who is a true friend to each of us and who will always remain in our hearts, Mrs. Grace Payne. Your thoughtfulness and understanding have made our darkest moments seem not so dark.

We deeply appreciate the sacrifices you have made and the work you have done to make our annual and school better ones. Your Christian life and compassion for your fellowman will serve as an inspiration to us throughout our lives...

So we gratefully dedicate this 1958 edition of THE TWIG to you, MRS. GRACE PAYNE. May this stand as a symbol of our gratitude, respect, and love for you.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 2, 1954, the doors of old F.G.H.S. swung open to seventy-five lively freshmen who were clamoring to begin their high school education with Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Ivey to lead us. The new freshmen suited us because we were freshmen in high school--completely unaware of and unconcerned about the years ahead. Somewhat perplexed by the assignments of math, English, and civics, we wondered if the other three years to come would ever end; however with the aid of our teachers the rough places were soon smoothed over. Participation in football, basketball, baseball, band, and other activities furnished deviation from our studies and sent us back refreshed for more.

One year later, a group of silly sophomores answered to roll call in Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Hedrick's rooms. As many of the names were called, there was no answer; the number of our class went down. From this year we can recall many pleasant memories, such as parties, selling candy, and also taking "Mr. Gross-hopper" apart.

Before we realized it we were in Junior-hood with Mrs. Poyné and Mrs. Lyndon as leaders. We sold magazines and school monogrammed sportswear, trying to earn money for the most important event of the year--The Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme "The Lost Round-up" was successfully carried out with the assistance of Mrs. Hedrick. We became proud owners of class rings, also. Another great event was the Junior Play, "Desperate Ambrose."

Now we are a group of forty-five seniors looking back over four years which seem much too short. We are researching for the good we have accomplished and realize it could have been more. With the assistance and leadership of Mrs. Fowler we are striving toward our trip to Washington and graduation.

Memorize some bit of verse of truth or beauty.

It may serve a turn in your life.

CLASS PROPHECY

Here it is, a warm day in May, 1968. As I drive my car to the Country Club for our class reunion, I wonder what my classmates have been doing during the past ten years. As a housewife, I have seen very few of them, although some of them have occupied the "Fair Grave Gazette" for quite some time. ERNEST MYERS is editor of the paper and the "greenbacks" really roll in.

As I arrive, I start to park, but find it difficult between the limousines and Cadillacs. Surely, I must be at the wrong place, but no, there is someone that looks familiar, but yet I can hardly see her under that mink. She is turning this way! "Bless Pat" if it isn't JUDY BLAKELY. I knew she had achieved great fame as an opera soprano, but I didn't expect to see her today. She was in New York last time I heard.

As I finally find a parking place for my Mercury, I start to go in, and I am late as usual. I enter the club and hang my wrap on the rack with the minks and ermines.

After greeting everybody, I sit down to talk to New York Times reporter, JOYCE HUGHES. As we talked, I was told many interesting things about my "dear ole classmates of '58."

BOYCE BODENHEIMER and HOLLIS BLAIR own a stock car and just last week won $50,000 racing.

LEON ALBRIGHT teaches Spanish and German at U.C.L.A.

PATSY ADAMS and JEAN ALBRIGHT own the Conover Modeling Agency and are the star models.

BARBARA CURRY designs all clothes for Kim Novak, Marilyn Monroe, and Jane Russell. She is paid a fabulous salary.

PATTI HILL and NANCY BODENHEIMER are co-owners of General Motors and both lead a life of leisure.

JOHN EVERHART and DONALD PERRY are big oil men now. Texas could not supply enough oil if it were not for them.

PREMA BYERLY is secretary to John D. Rockefeller, Jr. and handles all financial matters.

CHALMOUS SECHREST is the idol of all teenagers with his new current song, "Knack, Knack."

LARRY FLOYD won the football championship for Carolina again this year. He really trains his boys well. JONIE NELSON is his star quarterback.

PHILLIP COGGINS has achieved great fame as a wrestler. People flock to the arena every night and consider themselves lucky to get a seat. DARRELL WESTMORELAND is his manager.

PANSY HILL and SHELBY DANIELS are raking in money that is the result of their sugar plantation in Cuba. With their quiet personalities, I was always certain of their success.

JERRY KILCREASE, the neat boy of our class, is making movies when his time permits. However, modeling for athletic magazines takes most of his time.

KERMIT SNYDER and FRED HUSKINS teach and direct music at city schools. They conduct an orchestra of 500. This proves that hidden talent does exist.

RONNIE STILWELL and FRANCES HARDEE have taken over the Arthur Murray Studios. And it was always thought that they had two left feet in high school.

LINDA HILTON and NANCY MARTIN own the exclusive stores of where the best dressed women in America select their clothes.

ALICE ELLIOTT is an acrobatic swimming instructor. She also makes bathing suits in her spare time.

SHIRLEY EVANS is married and lives in a deluxe house that covers a complete block.

DICKIE FLEMING and JUDY FOWLER are chemists and have just discovered how to grow oranges without seeds.

PERRY WHITMAN is a producer in Hollywood now. I always knew his ambition would be rewarded.

JANICE LAMBETH and DOLLIE BOLDEN are comedienne and are in demand in every state of the U. S. They have been week-end guests at the White House many times.

JERRY KOONTZ is running for Congress. I know he will succeed because of his Southern popularity.

JERRY CRUMP and LEO BECK are co-owners of the American Steel Company.

Three hours later after I had talked to everybody, and as I was getting ready to leave, I thanked Mrs. Fowler for the wonderful time I had had. Everybody was the same as ever, success had ruined or spoiled none of them. I was so proud of them as I recalled many of the enjoyable times I had spent with them. Leaving I was happy and started looking forward to the time I could see them all again.
